CONTENTS

CHAP.  |  MINING TRADE UNIONISM BEFORE THE WAR  |  PAGE
-------|-------------------------------------|-------
I.     |                                    | 1

II. FROM THE OUTBREAK OF WAR TO THE ASSUMP-
    TION OF STATE CONTROL  | 16
    Section 1. Enlistment, Output, and Absenteeism  | 16
    "  2. Strikes, Conciliation, and Agreements  | 21
    "  3. The Triple Industrial Alliance  | 30
    "  4. Absenteeism (1916) and Pit Committees  | 38
    "  5. Labour Troubles in South Wales  | 42

III. THE MINES UNDER STATE CONTROL IN WAR-
    TIME  | 49
    Section 1. State Control  | 49
    "  2. Military Service  | 55
    "  3. Wages and Hours  | 60

IV. THE MINERS' PROGRAMME  | 64
    Section 1. The Miners' Federation after the War  | 64
    "  2. The Miners' Post-War Demands  | 70

V. THE COAL COMMISSION  | 77
    Section 1. The First Stage  | 77
    "  2. Between the Stages  | 87
    "  3. The Second Stage  | 90

VI. THE NATIONALIZATION STRUGGLE  | 101
    Section 1. The Reception of the Commission's Reports  | 101
    "  2. A Strike Interlude in Yorkshire  | 105
    "  3. The Government rejects Nationalization  | 111
    "  4. The 'Miners for the Nation' Campaign  | 116

VII. WAGES AND PRICES, 1920—THE MINING INDUSTRY
     ACT  | 122
    Section 1. Wages and Prices, 1920—The First Dem-
             mand  | 122
    "  2. The Mines Acts of 1920  | 129
    "  3. The Leamington Conference—The International Miners' Federation  | 136
CONTENTS

CHAP.
VIII. THE MINING STRIKE OF 1920
Section 1. An ‘Indivisible Demand’
" 2. The Second Phase—the Triple Alliance
" 3. Negotiations on Wages and Output
" 4. The Strike and the Settlement
IX. THE STRUGGLE OF 1921
Section 1. The Lull before the Storm
" 2. Decontrol
" 3. Rival Schemes—the Question of a Subsidy
" 4. In Terms of Wages
" 5. Enter the Triple Alliance
" 6. ‘Black Friday’
" 7. Abortive Negotiations—the Coal Embargo
" 8. Attrition
" 9. The Terms of Settlement
" 10. The Aftermath

CONCLUSION

APPENDICES

A. Output, Employment, and Profits in the Mining Industry, 1910-21
B. Bill submitted to the Coal Commission by the Miners’ Federation of Great Britain
D. Text of the Terms of Settlement of July 1921
E. Memorandum of the Miners’ Federation on the Effect of the Reparation Agreement upon the Export of British Coal

A NOTE ON BOOKS AND SOURCES

INDEX