Contents

Introduction

Hinduism and Islam in Medieval Bengal
Edward C. Dimock, Jr.

Norms of Family Life and Personal Morality among the Bengali Hindu Elite, 1600–1850
Tapan Raychaudhuri

Economic Foundations of the Bengal Renaissance
Blair B. Kling

The Universal Man and the Yellow Dog: The Orientalist Legacy and the Problem of Brahmo Identity in the Bengal Renaissance
David Kopf

The Reinterpretation of Dharma in Nineteenth-Century Bengal: Righteous Conduct for Man in the Modern World
Rachel Van M. Baumer

Bengal and Britain: Culture Contact and the Reinterpretation of Hinduism in the Nineteenth Century
John N. Gray

The Social and Institutional Bases of Politics in Bengal, 1906–1947
J. H. Broomfield

Bengal’s Pre-1905 Congress Leadership and Hindu Society
John R. McLane

A Public Policy Profile on Rural Development in Bengal
Nicolaas Luykx

A Bibliographic Essay on Bengal Studies in the United States
David Kopf

Index