Contents

Preface
Colonialism and Modernization
Reinterpretation of Nineteenth Century Indian Economic History
British and Indian Ideas on Indian Economic Development, 1858-1905
Elements of Continuity and Change in the Early Nationalist Activity
The Indian Capitalist Class and Imperialism before 1947
Jawaharlal Nehru and the Capitalist Class, 1936
Modern India and Imperialism
The Ideological Development of the Revolutionary Terrorists in Northern India in the 1920s
Indian National Movement and the Communal Problem
Lord Dufferin and the Character of the Indian Nationalist Leadership
Lenin and the National Liberation Movements
Peasantry and National Integration in Contemporary India
Tilak
Social Origins of Dictatorship and Democracy
Index