CONTENTS

1. How Major is our Literature of the Past Fifty Years?
   The Inaugural Address
   — C. D. Narasimhaiah

2. How 'Major' is our Literature of the Past Fifty Years?
   Indian Writing in English: Poetry
   — K. R. Srinivasa Iyengar
   11

3. Contemporary Indian Fiction in English —
   Its Background and "Tone"
   — P. Lal
   26

4. How Major is Hindi Literature of the Past Fifty Years?
   — Dr. Prabhakar Machwe
   36

5. Modern Kannada Literature—Poetry
   — V. Sitaramiah
   43

6. Gulf between expectation and fulfilment in Kannada Fiction
   — K. S. Karanth
   55

7. Fifty Years of Modern Telugu Literature
   — Rayaprolu Subba Rao
   63

8. An Appraisal of Marathi Renaissance Literature
   — A. R. Deshpande
   75

9. Fiction and Other Prose Writing in Malayalam
   — S. K. Nayar
   83

10. Gujarathi Prose Literature of the Renaissance Period
    — Chunilal Madia
    93

11. Major Currents in Sanskrit Criticism: A Survey
    — Dr. K. Krishnamurthy
    99

12. Old Myth: New Myth, Recital Versus Novel
    — Mulk Raj Anand
    109

13. The Tractor and the Plough: The Contrasted Visions of Sudhin Ghose and Mulk Raj Anand
    — Meenakshi Mukherjee
    121

14. The Achievement of R. K. Narayan
    — V. Y. Kantak
    133

15. The Cat and Shakespeare: A Study
    — M. K. Naik
    147

16. Bhabani Battacharya: So Many Hungers! and Khushwant Singh:
    Train to Pakistan
    — M. Tarinayya
    177

17. G. V. Desani: First Impressions
    — P. Rama Moorthy
    203
18. The Achievement of the Indian Women Novelists
   — C. Vimala Rao                           213

19. Cry the Peacock as a Poetic Novel
   — Darshan Singh Maini                    225

20. Chronicles of Kedaram: A Question of Form
    — M. G. Krishnamurthy                    235

21. An Analysis of Chemmeen: A Novel by Thakazhi Sivasankara Pillai
    Translated by Narayana Menon
    — H. S. Shivanna                         243

22. The Indian Novelist in English as Best Seller
    — Sujit Mukherjee                        255

23. Indian Poetry in English: The Nineteenth Century
    — M. Rama Rao                            264

24. Contemporary Indian Verse in English
    — H. H. Anniah Gowda                      284

25. Sri Aurobindo's Poetry with reference to a few Short Poems
    K. S. Lalitha                             299

26. The Literary Criticism of Sri Aurobindo
    — S. Nagarajan                            312

27. Ananda Coomaraswamy’s The Dance of Shiva
    — S. K. Mokashi Punekar                   327

28. Summary Account of the Seminar on Indian Writing in English,
    University of Mysore, January 13 — 16, 1968
    — A Wendt                                344