shadow from ladakh

American-trained, Westernised Bhashkar, chief engineer in a large Indian steel plant, wants an excuse to dispossess Gandhigram, a community of followers of the revered Mahatma who oppose his aims. He brings every pressure to bear, but to his surprise, the community stands firm under its great leader, Satyajit, and he himself falls in love with Satyajit’s daughter, Sumita.

In depicting this clash between two main tendencies of Indian life, Bhabani Bhattacharya tells a story of unsurpassed drama, stark and personal, but the key on a larger scale to the still-continuing Sino-Indian conflict.
