INDEX.

VOL. II.

Assassination of the Derby cabinet, 467; resignation of, 644.
Addiscombe College, speech of Lord Stanley at, 637.
Affghan, the, expelled from Lucknow, 589.
Agra, surprise of Greathouse's column at, 61; defeat of the rebels, id.; letters from, 65, 66; memorandum of chief commissioner, 70.
Ahmedabad, attempted revolt at, 142.
Aldwell, Mrs., evidence of, on the trial of the king of Delhi, 374.
Allahabad, arrival of governor-general at, 406; alarm at, 407; opening of railway to Patelpore, &c.; a proposed capital, 410; proclamation of the royal government at, 520.
Alligur, energetic movement at, 60, attempted mutiny prevented, 389; punishment of rebels at, id.
Almatabagh, the, 40, 84, 86; held by General Outram 99; operations near, 238, 240; letters from, 241, 244, 245; attacked by the rebels, 242, 244; despatch from, 242.
Ambala, the rajah and fort of, 529; preparations for attack, 533; description of the fort, 533; surrender of, 585.
Amidst the Isles, the, 178.
Anderson, Miss Georgiana, an orphan from Cawnpore, 590.
Annuities of honour voted by the East India Company, 443, 489.
Anticipation of an Indian revolt, by Mr. Brougham, 413.
Arrah, arrival of Dinapore mutineers at, 104; correspondence from, 115; disasters at, 118, 120; repulse of Europeans near, 288.
Arrangements for October campaign in Oude and Central India, 512.
Arrogance of the Europeans in India, 536, 637.
Arrival of fugitives from India at Southampton, 415.
Assam, rebellious proceedings crushed at, 162.
Assumption of the government of India by Queen Victoria, 512; petition of the East India Company against the measure, 447; royal proclamation, 518.
Auckland, Lord, letter of, to the king of Oude, 459.
Aurangabad, state of the city of, 149.
Asmurgur, unfavourable reports from, 69; approach of rebel force to, 285; occupied by Koer Sing, id.

B.

Baillie, Mr., notice of inquiry into causes of rebellion, 457.
Bains Madho, rajah of Shunkerpore; summons to, 637; negotiation with, 538; flight and pursuit of, 539.
Bankes, conflict at, 534.
Banke, Major, death of, at Lucknow, 10.
Barbery, operations of rebel troops in, 306; advance of Sir Colin Campbell against, 327; flight of rebel chiefs from, &c.; the first shot, 329; the town captured, 330; incidents of the fight, 333; victims of the outrage of May, 1537, &c.; statement of Mrs. Decamp, &c.
Barrow, Major, commandant of volunteer cavalry in the field; thanks of government to, 409; negotiations of, with the rajah of Amathar, 530, 532, 533, 536.
Battle, parliamentary discussion respecting, 468, 470.

Begum of Oude, proclamation of, 543; terms offered to, 551; carried off by her troops, 552; requisitions of, 556; position of, in Nepaul, 579; interview with, 580; movements of, 593.
Bengal, errors in the military code of, 607; extent of military revolt in, 608; report of military commission on the reorganisation of the army, 609.
Berar, operations of field force in, 577.
Berhampore, doubtful conduct of the troops at, 153; arrival of H.M. 90th regiment at, &c.; native troops disarm at, 164.
Beylah, halt of the Oude force at, 599.
Bhela, outrages perpetrated by the, 151.
Bhowsee, repulse of the Gwalior rebels at, by General Windham, 189.
Bill to transfer the government of India, introduced, 454; debate thereon, 455, 462; text of Bill No. 1, 453; objects of the bill explained, 466; Bill No. 2, 470; debate thereon, 470, 471, 474; Bill No. 3, text of, 490; remarks upon, 488; debate thereon, 489, 490; petition of East India Company against, 490; passed, 491; amended text, 491, 499.
Birjes Kuddar, interview with, at the camp of the begum of Oude, 580; letter of, to Jung Bahadur, 581.
Bithoor, the town and fort of, 25; action near, 26; despatch from, 27.
Bombay, disturbances in, 130; plot discovered at, 184; punishment of ringleaders, &c.; proclamation of the royal government at, 521, 522; reforms in administration at, 529.
Bombay Telegraph, extracts from the, 362.
Booity, orders respecting the Delhi, 170, 184.
Boyle, Lieutenant, 78th highlanders, at Donsa, 18.
Boyle, Mr., heroic defence at Arrah, 104; narrative of occurrences, 105; thanked by the governor-general, 107; munificent reward of, 464.
Boosoo, Sookeul, arrest of, at Kuttungoo, 148.
Bullunghur, correspondence from, 59.
Burton, Major, murder of, at Kotah, 150, 160.
Busheer-gunge, actions at, 18, 21.

C.

Calcutta, state of public feeling in, 368; arrival of troops from England to, &c.; presentation of colours to volunteers at, 392; arrival of fugitives from Lucknow, 401; progress of the convoy described, 402; the disembarkation, 403; death of the bishop of, 404; alarm at, 406; compensation meeting at, 408; volunteers cavalry disbanded at, 409; return of naval brigade to, 410; proclamation of the royal government at, 419, 520; public meeting at, 524.
Calpee, sight of the Rana of Jhanso to, 296; telegram from Sir Hugh Rose, 300; address to the troops, 348.
Cambridge, defence of General Windham by the Duke of, 302.
Campbell, Sir Colin, on recommendations for the Victoria Cross, 29; despatch to Major-General Havelock, 31; to General Outram, 32; remarks on the battle of Kudya, 77; opens the Oude campaign, 83; joins the army at Lucknow, 88; enters the residency, &c.; orders the evacuation, 89; message to governor-
INDEX.

Dorin, Mrs., death of, at Lucknow, 11.
Douglas, Brigadier, operations of, 387, 399.
Dowell, Lieutenant, report of occurrences at Dacca, 222.
Dasseral, the Hindoo festival of, 144.

E.

EAST INDIA COMPANY, announcement of direct government by the crown, 444; correspondence with Lord Palmerston, 67, to the House of Commons, 447; discussion thereon, 454, 457; the bills for transferring the government of India to the crown discussed, 474; resolution thereon, 475; petition against Bill No. 3, 490; extinction of the territorial government of, 499; last official acts of, 508.

Education of European officers directed, 82.

Ellenborough, Lord, address to his tenantry, on the Indian crisis, 494; bill of, for the government of India, 470; statement on the Oude proclamation, 474; comminatory despatch of, 479; resignation of, 482.

Elibichpore, mutinous assault at, 548.

Elphinstone, Lord, letter to, on the restoration of order in Oude, 557.

Errors, parliamentary, corrected, 640.

Etawah, murder of railway clerks at, 584; capture and punishment of the assassins, 599.

Eyre, Major Vincent, details of rebel's by, at Koondhun, Puttice, 34; arrival at, and operations near, Arrah, 111; defeat of Koer Sing at, ib.; capture of Jugispore, 126; report of operations, 127.

F.

FANSHAW, Captain, escape of, near Ferozepore, 340.

Forrester, address of the East India Company to its officers and servants, 527.

Fast-day for the rebellion in India proclaimed, 420.

Feroze Shah, defeat of, at Moradabad, 308; enters the Deob, 546; movements of, 556, 583.

Finchett, Joseph, adventures of, at Cawnpore, 591; his account of the massacre there, ib.

Fulton, Captain, death of, at Lucknow, 15.

Furukhabad, the city of, 183; surrender of the nawab of, 561; sent to Fatehghur for trial, 502; negotiates for escape, 594; trial and sentence, 595, 596; banished to Meena, 611.

Futtehgur, the station of, 186; rajah of Furukhabad imprisoned at, 596.

Futtehgurje, arrival of the Rohilkund field force at, 328.

Fyzabad, operations of the moulvie of, 307, 337; death of, 347; advance of Brigadier Grant to, 361.

G.

GHAKES, an attack by, 61; desperate encounter with, at Kukerowles, 318; at Bareilly, 330.

Ghorkas, advance of, from Nepaul, 165, 228; operations of, at Gorukhpore, 227; at Lucknow, 257; homeward march of, 275, 276.

Gonda, murderous project of the rajah of, frustrated, 144; defeat of rebels at, 606.

Goonjar, defeat of rebels at, 599, 600.

Gurukhempore, defeat of rebels at, by Jung Bahadoor, 297.

Gurukhabad memorandum of the on the defence of Lucknow, 44, 45, 47; on the death of Sir Henry Lawrence, 56, 387; orders a gratuity to the troops, 387; notification of the death of Mr. Coirvin, 68; instructions to the government of the Central Provinces of India, 69; telegram to the commander-in-chief, 91; order for the reception of the Lucknow fugitives at Calcutta, 99; on the death of Lieutenant Henry, 154; general order of, respecting General Windham, 502; on the advance of Jung Bahadoor, 224; notification of the re-capture of Lucknow, 270; proclamation to the people of Oude, 278; explanatory letter of, correspondence with Sir James Outram, chief commissioner of Oude, thereon, 278, 279; notification of the death of Sir William Peel, 321; operations in Rohilkund, 331; on the massacre of Gwalior, 354; promise of Maun Sing, 392; unpopularity of Lord Canning, 365; movement in favour of, 386; Regulation of Arms Bill, 391; strictures on the policy of, 393; explanatory despatch of 11th December, 1857, to the Court of Directors, 393; institute of council of 31st July, 1857, 398; despatch of 24th December, 399; correspondence with the Hon. T. F. Grant respecting mutineers at Cawnpore, 400; minute of the governor-general thereon, 401; accused of missionary zeal, 408; removes to Allahabad, 406; opens railway between Allahabad and Futtehgur, 407; Calcutta volunteer cavalry disbanded by order of, 409; his policy assailed, 411, 412; administration of, reviewed in England, 412; defence of, by Lord Granville at the Mansion House, 430; by Lord Palmerston at Guildhall, 433; letter of, on the Indian Relief Fund, 439; policy defended in parliament, 445; his co-operation with the commander-in-chief shown, ib.; the thanks of parliament to, 454; the secret comminatory despatch of Lord Ellenborough to, 479; letter from secret committee of the Court of Directors to, 480; discussion in parliament thereon, 481; resignation of, Lord Ellenborough's instructions to the governor-general from the Court of Directors, ib.; resolution of continued confidence in, 484; despatch from Lord Canning to the Court of Directors, 501; acknowledgment of vote of confidence in, 506; instructions to civil officers in Oude, 513; proclamation to the inhabitants, 514; proclamation of the royal government, and appointment of Lord Canning as viceroy, 518; inauguration of the royal government at Allahabad, 520; despatch from Lord Clyde to, announcing termination of the war in Oude, 563; government notification thereof, 567; return of, to Calcutta, 565; regulations of, in cases of confiscation, ib.; answer to inquirers after compensation, 616; amount of claims, ib.; appeal of claimants to the British parliament, 617; obnoxious financial measure of, 621; discussion in council thereon, 623; popular excitement, 624; resolutions of Chamber of Commerce, Bombay, 625; proceedings at Madras, 626; alleged collision with Sir John Lawrence refuted, 639; letter of Lord Stanley to, 644; vindication of his council by, 646; discussion on the Stanley correspondence, 647; thanks of parliament to, 650, 653; order of, 651; commutation of sentence on the nawab of Furukhabad, by, 651.

Graham, Miss (Sealcoke), arrival of, in England, 416.

Grant, the Hon. J. P., correspondence of, respecting Cawnpore rebels, 400, 401.

Grant, Mr. G. H., escape of, from Deogur, 160.

Grant, Brigadier, adoption of, at Mynpoor, 72; arrival at Cawnpore, ib.; defeat of rebels at Biloor, 210; at Serai ghat, ib.; report from, 211; advance to Baree, 307; skirmish with rebels at, 343; capture of Nuwbagunge, 345; report of, 346; advance from Lucknow, 372; relieves Maun Sing at Shabgunge, 372.

Granville, Lord, defence of Lord Canning's administration by, 430; questions of, to Lord Ellenborough, 478; motion for papers, 479, 479, 494.

Greathead, Brigadier, defeat of rebels at Bolundakhur, by, 60; arrival at Aggra, 61; surprised by the enemy, ib.; defeat of the rebels, 62; report of, 63, 64; general order by, 68; instructions for future operations, 69; letters from his column, 73.

Gubbins, Martin, Esq., his garrison at Lucknow, 3; correspondence of, 5.

Guille, defeat of Lucknow rebels at the village of, 239.

Gwalior, detection of the contingent of, 187; desertion of the troops, 188; alarm at, 349; approach of rebel force under Nana Sahib, and Dance of Scindias, 350; taken possession of by rebels, ib.
INDEX.

advance of Sir Hugh Rose, 351; defeat of rebels at the Morar campment, ib.; the city recovered, 353; restoration of Scindia, 354; government notifications, 353, 356; incidents of the capture, 356; native treachery exhibited at in August, 1834, 597.

H.

Haileybury College, closing session at, 439.

Harrison, Captain, report of disaster at Arrah, 110.

Havelock, Brigadier-general, tidings of the success of, at Cawnapore, 14; enters Cawnpore for the relief of Lucknow, 16; action at Oonoo, 17; at Buxeruttunge, 18, 21; telegrams from, 18, 20, 22, 24; his troops retire to Mangulwar, 19; gun Lasars disarm'd, 21; action at Borseekee Chowkia, 23; returns to Oono, ib.; he crosses the river to Cawnapore, ib.; state of the troops described, 25, 28, 31; attack and capture of Bithoor, 26; returns to Cawnapore, 27; congratulatory order to the troops, ib.; report of action at Bithoor, ib.; list of triumphs, ib.; recommendations for the Victoria Cross, 28; objections to, and correspondence thereon, 28, 29, 29; report of the commander-in-chief, 30; detail of his services and position, 30, 31; reply of the commander-in-chief, ib.; telegram from Brigadier Inglis to, 35; the government of the Lucknow active force condescended to, by General Outram, 37; General Havelock's acknowledgment, and order to the troops, ib.; he crosses the Ganges into Oudo, 38; drives the rebels from Mangulwar, 39; advances to Lucknow, 40; capture of the Alumbagh, ib.; enters the city, 41; conflict in the streets, ib.; enters the residency enclosure, ib.; joy of the relieved garrison, ib.; cost of the triumph, 42, 44; surrenders the command to Sir James Outram, 42; despatch from, ib.; government notification of his success, 44; communication cut off between the residency and Alumbagh, ib.; beleaguered by the rebels, 48; movement of troops for his relief, 60; approach of the commander-in-chief, 86; the garrison rescued, 91; death of General Havelock at Dilkoush, 93; personal notice of, 95, 97; posthumous honours and onwards, 97, 429, 442.

Havelock, Lieutenant Henry, recommended for the Victoria Cross, for conspicuous gallantry at Cawnapore, 28; correspondence thereon, 28, 29; decorated by the Queen, 445.

Haileybury, Lieutenant Charles, death of, at Jaunpore, 286.

Halsey, an English lunatic prisoner, found at Bareilly, 303.

Hasheen, Esmiin, murder of, at Kolapore, 131, 132.

Henry, Lieutenant, death of, at Nandnog Singhole, 151.

Hidayat Ali, loyal conduct of, rewarded, 184.

Highlanders, native dread of, 145; advance of Tantia Topese to relieve it, ib.; storm and capture of the fort, 291; flight of the Rana, ib.; fatal explosion at, 292; incidents of the storm, 292, 293; recollections of the massacre of June, 1697, 296.

Hodson, Major (captor of the king of Delhi), mortally wounded at Lucknow, 235.

Hogg, Colonel, explanations of, respecting the prince Jumna Bukht, 104.

Holmes, Major, murder of, and lady, at Segowlie, 127.

Home, Lieutenant, of Delhi, killed by a mine at Malaghar, 60.

Hope, Brigadier Adrian, death of, at Rooya or Rouddanow, 311, 314.

Horne, Major, drowned in the Rapties, 355, 556, 555.

Horsford, Brigadier, defeats fugitive rebels from Oude, in Nepal, 501.

Hossain Mujooy Khan, nawab of Moradabad; capture of, 308.

Hot-weather campaign of 1858, field operations in the, 284.

Hume, Mr., magistrate of Etawah; gallantry of, in the field, 547.

Hume, Lieutenant, death of, at Hurchandpole, 547.

Hussain Ushkurie, the king of Delhi's soothsayer, execution of, 184.

Hussut Mahal, first wife of the king of Oude; assumes the regency of the kingdom, and promotes the rebellion in favour of her son, 247; conditions offered to, 256; driven from Lucknow, ib.; purchases the Lucknow prisoners from Loonee Sing for 8,000 rupees, 257; reorganizing her army, 265; in the field at Khirabad with 10,000 men, 281; movements of, 335, 344, 372; proclamation of, 543; terms of surrender offered to, 551; carried off by her troops, 552; demands of, 556; driven from a position on the Rapties, 560; flight into Nepal, 561; condition of her troops there, 579; interview with, in camp, 580; recrosses the Gandock, and subsequent movements of, 593.

I.

Hyderabad, attempted assassination at, 585.

Indian finance, state of, 388; scheme for improvement of, 390. See also, 641, 642, 648.

Indian Relief Fund, correspondence respecting, 439.

Indies, arrival of fugitives by the, at Southampton, 417.

Inglis, Colonel, appointed by Sir Henry Lawrence to the command at Lucknow, 8; telegram from, to Brigadier-general Havelock, 35; report of the defence of the residence, 45-56; promotion, 56, 453; succeeds to the command at Cawnapore, vice Windham, removed to Umballa, 230.

Inglis, Lady, death of, 89; arrival in England, 415.

Instructions from Court of Directors to Lord Canning, 482.

Interference of civilians with military arrangements, injudicious effects of, 70, 71.

Ishmael Khan, surrender of, 550; influence of his example, ib.

J.

Jackson, Sir Mountstuart and Miss Georgiana, murdered at Lucknow, 256, 380.

Jackson, Miss Madeline, rescue of, 258; her marriage at Calcutta, 596.

Jaminun, Colonel, letter to, from rebels of Jabulpure, 146; his reply, 147.

Jeerum, concentration of rebel troops at, 212; dispersed at, by Captain Tucker, 213.

Jelalabad, occupation of the fort of, 86; English troops arrive at, 227; an account of, ib.

Jelporin, murder of mutineers at, 142; arrival of rebel force at, 222; desertion of troops from, ib.; letter from, 223; unsuccessful expedition from, ib.

Jhanna Bowun, pillage of the town of, 59.

Jhansi, attack of, by Sir Hugh Rose, 209; duplicity of the Rana, ib.; letter from, 291; advance of Tantia Topese to relieve it, ib.; storm and capture of the fort, 291; flight of the Rana, ib.; fatal explosion at, 292; incidents of the storm, 292, 293; recollections of the massacre of June, 1697, 296.

Jones, Brigadier, despatch from, at Moradabad, 309; advance to Bareilly, 317.

Jones, Colonel, report of battle of Kukerowies, 319.

Jubulpore, alarm at, 143, 144; execution at, 146; desertion from, ib.; details of occurrences at, 148, 150.

Judgindore, capture of the fort and palace of, 126; disaster at, 297.

Jung Bahadour, of Nepaul, assistance offered by, 155; spiritual conduct of his troops at Mundoree, ib.; government notification of his advance, 224; visit to, 226; Goruckpore relieved by, 227; arrival at Fyzabad, 228; battle of Suhumpore, 229; advance towards Lucknow, 233; gallant conduct of the Ghooorkees, 235, 237, 266, 268; returns to Nepaul, 275, 276; correspondence with rebel leaders, 370, 380; misunderstanding with British resident at Khattamoonoo, 360; proclamation of, 370; offers an asylum to the begum of Oude and family, 579, 580, 605; rebels take shelter in Nepaul, contrary to his wish, 579; requires British aid to expel them, ib.
INDEX.

K.

Kaiserbagh, the, at Lucknow, 41, 267.
Kavanagh, Mr., adventure of, from Lucknow to the Alumbagh, 84, 86; at Rahimabad, 511; rewarded by government, 58; presented to the Queen, and obtains the Victoria Cross, 645.
Kerr, Lieutenant, garrison of, at Kolapore, 136.
Kerr, Lord Mark, dispatched to the relief of Azimgurh, 296.
Khatmandoon, reception of the Queen's proclamation at, by the Nepaulese, 560.
King of Delhi, visit to, 169, 179, 378; trial of, 171—177; Mr. Layard's report of visit to, 179, 180; arrival at Cawnpore, 284; deportation of, 829; arrival at Rangoon, 650.
Kirwee, assault and capture of, by General Whitlock, 367; revolt of rebels at, 558.
Koer Sing, followers of, at Arrah, 104; routed by Major Vincent Eyre, 111; retires to Jugidaspore, 126; popularity of, 163; defeated at Azimgurh, 286; reward offered for, 287.
Kolapore, outbreak at, 130; murder of officers at, 131; details of the occurrence, 131, 132, 135; fidelity of the rajah of, 136; punishment of rebels at, 137, 138.
Kouch, triumph of Sir Hugh Rose at, 297.
Koose, surprise and defeat at, 147.
Kotah, the frontier town of, 159; murder of Major Burt- ton at, 156; capture of, 300; fatal explosion at, 302.
Kota-ki-Serai, occupation of, by Sir Hugh Rose, 351.
Kudwa, attack upon the rebels at, 78.
Kukerwoda, death of General Punny at, 318.
Kutteegoo, the port of, 156; revolt prevented at, 156; punishment of rebels, 137, 158; frightful explosion at, 614.
Kuttungee, flight of rebels from, 148; mutilated corpse of Lieutenant Macgregor found at, 148.

L.

Lady's diary of the siege of Lucknow, extracts from, 42, 90.
Lahore, proclamation of the royal government at, 521.
Lall Madhow Sing, rajah of Amathie, conduct of, 530; surrenders to Lord Clyde, 531; his fort evacuated, 332.
Lambton, Captain, success of, at Nahirigurh, 575.
Languages, the, of India, profession to Anglicise them, 431.
Lawrence, Sir Henry, desperate condition of, at Lucknow, 3; telegram from, 6; death of, 7; notification of, by the government, 56, 387; annuity voted to the eldest son of, 474.
Lawrence, Sir John Muir, assumes the administration of the Delhi and Punjab districts, 181, 184; compensation, scheme of, 181, 612, 613; barony conferred upon, 500; pension voted to, 156; nominated to the council of India, 509; report of administration of the Punjab, 612.
Layard, Mr., misrepresentations of, respecting the king of Delhi, 179; correction of the, 180.
Leaders of the rebel forces in June, 1858, 363.
Le Grand, Captain, death of, near Jugidaspore, 288.
Leonard's, Lord St., reply of, to Archbishop Cullen, 432, 432.
Lloyd, Major-general, conduct of, at Dinapore, 103; reports from, 108, 111; letters to the deputy-adjointant-general, 118; removed from command, 121; explanations of, 121, 125; alleged feeling against at Dinapore 125.
Lonsia authorised for the service of India, 454, 641, 642, 643.
Lonsi Sing, rajah of Mitawlee; treason and punishment of, 598.
Louncher, Captain, arrest of the rajah of Debogbarh by, 163.

Lucknow, the residency and fortifications at, 3; siege of, commenced, 6; death of Lawrence at, 7; Colonel Ingla appointed to the command, 8; incidents of the siege, 6, 11, 12; condition of the inhabitants, 10, 12, 15; advance of Havelock for the relief of, 16; arrangement of force for, 37; the Alumbagh, 40, 75; entry of Havelock's troops, 41; report of General Havelock, 42; death of General Neil at, 43; the relief shut up in, 44; Brigadier Ingla's report of the defence of the residency, 48, 56; fidelity of native soldiers at, 57; instructions for the effectual relief of, 69, 70; state of the besieged garrison in the residency, 78, 79; divisional order of General Outram at, 80; approach of Sir Colin Campbell to, 83; Mr. Kavanag- h's adventure to convey intelligence, 84, 86; the Dilkooasha and Secundearnagh, 86; operations of the naval brigade at, 87, 88; the residency delivered, 89; the women and children withdrawn from, 89, 254; evacuated by the garrison, 91; peril of Captain Waterman at, 92; general orders of the commander-in-chief, 93; despatch of General Outram, 94; death of Havelock at Dilkooasha, 95; concentration of rebel forces in and around the city, 242; the Alumbagh assaulted, 243, 244; tempest of the rebel troops at Lucknow, 245; new defensive works at, 246; rebel leaders at, 247; British force assigned for the final recapture of the city, 250; incidents of the march, 251; attack upon the city, 255, 256; the result, 256; fatal accident at, 146; narrative of treatment of British prisoners by the rebels, 257; extract from letter in Bombay Standard respecting the Jacksons and Orra, murdered at Lucknow, 259, 260; correspondence describing incidents of the siege, 260; of the recapture, 265, 266, 269; official notification of the capture, 270; despatches of Sir Colin Campbell, 271; general order to the troops at, 275; plans for the future occupation of, 280; state of the troops at, 281; tempest of the people around, 292; arrival of Mr. Montgomery at, as chief commissioner of Oude, 305; arrangement of the protective force, 306; menaced by the rebels, 343; improvements in the city, 369; details by a native, of the murder of Sir Mountstuart Jackson and others, 380; search for the graves, 381; visit of Lord Clyde to, 442.
Lugard, Sir Edward, appointed to the command of the Azimgurh force, 291; succeeds to the command of, 292; murder of Mr. Montgomery at, 297; defeat and pursuit of Koer Sing by, 297.
Lyell, Dr., murder of, at Patna, 102.
Lytton, Sir E. B., speech of, at St. Albans, on Indian affairs, 417.

M.

Macgregor, Lieutenant, carried off by mutineers from Jubbulpore, 146; correspondence with them respecting, 146, 147; mutilated corpse of, discovered at Kuttungoo, 148.
Madhow Rao, surrender of, to Kirwee, 367.
Madras, disfranchised at, 120; antipathy of native races, 129; letter from, on popular feeling, 130; proclamation of the Queen's government at, 553.
Madras 1st fusiliers, address to, by the governor-general, 619; reception of, at Madras, 620.
Mahaned Suraj-oo-deen, ex-king of Delhi; charges against, 171; trial of, 171-178; visits to, 169, 179, 378; arrival at Cawnpore, 294; at Rangoon, 626.
Maladministration of military affairs by the Indian government, 70.
Maleghur, destruction of the fort of, 68.
Mansfield, General, report of operations at Cawnpore, 209; defeat of rebels at Majidiah, 582.
Manson, Mr., murder of, by the chief of Nuryongi, 341; official notification of, 342.
Massacres, general notice of, 590; corroborative testimony of, 591; survivors of, 592.
Maun Sing, rajah of Shahgunja; fidelity of, 36; besieged
N.

Nahinbegur, affair of Captain Lambton at, 575.
Nairs, caste privileges of the, 588.
Nana Sahib, intelligence of, 511; letter of, to Jung Bahadur, 509.
Nandoor Singaram, affair with Bhels at, 151; death of Lieutenant Henry at, 10.
Napier, Brigadier, pursuit of Tantas troops by, 353.
Nasirgani (Travancore), caste disturbances at, 597.
National Bank, defeat at Kuwee, 356.
Native army, suggestions for the reorganisation of, 429.
Native fertility and hatred, an instance of, 614.
Native religious festivals de-countenanced, 645.
Naval brigade (Skansce, Captain Sir W. Peel) dispatched to the Cawn- pore, 72; notice of, 74, gallant conduct at Kudawa, 76; attack of the Shah Nuteef, Lucknow, by, 87; ser- vices at the Kaserbagh, 91, recover a gun at Cawn- pore, 191; mentioned in despatches, 197, 199, 270, 274; at Lucknow, 260, return to Calcutta, 410.
Naval bugle (Pearl, Captain Sotheby), summary of its services, 619; mentioned in despatches, 10, return to Calcutta, 619.
Nextuch, advance of rebels upon, 213; the fort of, 214; operations before, 215; narrative of incidents, 216.
Neill, Brigadier-general, report of, from Cawnpore, 16; death of, at Lucknow, 43; services of, 19; posthu- mous honours awarded to, 499; annuity to widow of, 443.
Nepal, extent and territory of, 223; advance of Ghoo- Laras from, 235; operations of, at Goruckpore, 227; at Lucknow, 260; return of, rebels from Oude take refuge in, 579; defeated upon the frontier of, 581.
Nerbudda and Saurashtra districts, disquietude of the, 150.
Nicholson, Brigadier, posthumous honours awarded to, 443; annuity granted to the mother of, 18.
Nimbhur, expulsion of a rebel force from, 155.
Nizam, attempted assassination at the court of, 358.
Norris, Lieutenant, murdered at Kolagore, 181, 132.
Nurgood, the rajah of, 340; murder of Mr. Masters by, 341.
Nuwabung, battle of, 345; despatches from, 446; de- tails of the action, 347.

O.

Onoda, battle of, 17.
Orr, Major, advance of, to Mehdipore, 219.
Orr, Captain, imprisoned at Lucknow, 267; murdered, 268; search for the grave of, 381.
Orr, Mrs, and infant, rescued by British forces, 258.
Oude, hostility of the people of, 21; operations of Sir Colin Campbell in, 38, 53, 212; recapture of Lucknow accomplished, 276, proclamation to the people of, 40; disposition of the Oude forces, 395; administrative commission of, 324; renewed disquietude in, 260; general state of the country in June, 158, 368; rebel force in, 372; operations in, 510; instructions to civil authorities of, 513; provisional government of the Oude- general, 514; rise of the rebellion, 543; termination of hos- titutes in, 571; progress of general disarmament, 589; the causes of revolt considered, 632.
Oude, the king of, his revolting position, 390, 391.
Owen, Sergeant (53rd regiment), and family at South- ampton, 416.
Oxford, speech of the Bishop of, on Christianity in India, 436.

P.

Pakistan, Sir John, M.P., address of, to his constitu- ences, on India affairs, 423.
Palmer, Mrs, wounded at Lucknow, 8.
Palmerston, Lord, speech on the policy of Lord Canning, 436; announces the direct government of India by the crown to the Court of Directors, 444; correspondence thereon, 446, 447; moves the thanks of parliament to the governor-general, and to the civil, military, and naval services in India, 454; motion for bill to transfer the government of India to the crown, 19; Bill No. 1, introduced, 465; test of the Palmerston cabinet, 467; presents to the introduction of Bill No. 2 (Elli- borne’s) by Mr Darasah, 471; the two measures compared, 472, 474, 485, 489.
Fanniere, Lord, explanation of relations between the gov- ernor-general and the commander-in-chief in India, 432.
Parke, Brigadier, defeat of Tantas troops by, 545.
Parliamentary resolution of December, 1857, commencement of, 441; thanks of parliament voted to governor- general, 448; petition of East India Company to, 447; bill introduced by Lord Palmerston for transferring the government of India to the crown, 454; debate thereon, 456, 457, 463; debate on Mr. Belliss’s motion for inquiry unto stated of the war, 457, 460; the Bill No. 1, 463; second reading postponed, 467; Mr. Rich’s motion for papers, 18; discussion on the question of bates for services at Delhi, 463; Order Ellinborough’s Bill No. 2, introduced by Mr. Darasah,
INDEX.

479; discussion thereon, 471; defects of, 473; opposed by the East India Company, 474; resolutions proposed to be substituted, 476; debate thereon, 477; Lord Granville moves for papers, 478, 484; the secret despatches produced, 478, 480; Bill No. 8 (Stanley's), 486; adopted by the Commons, 490; petitioned against by the East India Company in the Lords, 491; text of the bill as passed, 491; session of February, 1858, 493; financial remits of India, 461, 467; Lord Stanley's letters to the governor-general, 464, 468; discussion thereon, 467; parliament dissolved, 465; reasssembled, 466.

Patna, the city of, 101; murder of Dr. Lyall at, 102; punishment of rebels, 103.

Peele, Captain Sir William (naval brigade), advance of, to the assistance of Havelock, 38; at Cawnpore, 72, 74; at Kulla, 76; Bucknow, 87, 91; wounded, 260; death of, 321; official notification of, 322; honourable mention of, in parliament, 652.

Peer Ali Khan, seditions conduct of, at Patna, 101; punishment of, 102, 303.

Penny, General death of, at Kukrowlee, 318.

Poona, narrative of the siege of Lucknow, extract from, 471.

Pertahghur, defeat of Tantia Topse at, 557.

Peshawur, the 10th irregular cavalry disarmed at, 141.

Petitions of East India Company against the government measures, 447, 474, 490.

Peshambur, Rev. Mr., wounded at Lucknow, 8.

Peshawur, the 10th irregular cavalry disarmed at, 141.

Policy of the government in Oude, 284.

Poonah, the city of, 159; conspiracy frustrated and punished at, 44.

Popular feeling in England on the Indian war, 426.

Purse-money for Delhi, reported amount of, 184, 612.

Proculation to the people of Oude, 276; effect of, 280; of the government of the Queen, 518; ceremonies thereon, 519-526; of the begum of Oude, 543; of the king of Delhi, 630.

Promotions for services at Lucknow, 56, 81, 511.

Punjab, quiet state of, the 233; plot discovered in, 373; administration of Sir John Lawrence in, 612.

Puticaella, defects of rebels at, 186; reward to the rajah of, 641.

B.

RADA GOVIND, defeat and slaughter of, 559.

Rajputana, disturbed state of, 155, 212.

Rampore, attack of the fort of, 566.

Rao Sahib, personal appearance of, 550.

Rapson, appearance of the river, 553; concentration of rebel forces upon, 560; submission of rebel chiefs at the, 561.

Rawal Pinde, conspiracy detected at, 389.

Rahe, Captain, death of, at Jorun, 313.

Rees, Mr., description of the recapture at Lucknow, 79; of the removal from, 89.

Relative merits of India Bills No. 1 and 2, discussed, 472, 474; No. 3, 498.

Religion in India, conduct of the government respecting it, 637.

Reorganisation, the great difficulty of, 627.

Residency (Lucknow), condition of, in May, 1857, 3, 4; details of the siege, 9-13; relieved by Havelock, 41; state of the occupants, 44, 78; official details of the relief, 45; report of Brigadier Jugilis, 48; operations of the relieving force, 80; divisional order, 48; Mr. Kavanagh's escape from, 94; relieved by Sir Colin Campbell, 89; the women and children, and wounded withdrawn, 89; abandoned by the garrison, 91, 92; general orders to the troops, 93; despatch of Sir James Outram, 94.

Resignation of the Palmerston cabinet, 467; return to power, 564.

Resolutions of the Court of Directors, 475.

Resolutions as a basis for legislation, on India, 476.

Restoration of arms to the 33rd native infantry, 612.

Rewards for fidelity, 646, 647, 648.

Roberts, General expedition and capture of Kotchey, 561; Roebuck, Mr., M.P., on the double government of India, 425.

Rohilcund, disturbed state of, 151, 523; concentration of rebel forces in, 560; plan of campaign in, 509; instructions to the administration of, 520; departure of Sir Colin Campbell for, 524; hostility of the people, 566.

Rohillas, unsettled state of the, 576.

Ronald, Mr., murder of, at Kotah, 106.

Roopi, or Koonaham, assault of the fort of, 311; death of Brigadier Hope at, 311, 314; operations before, 313, 315.

Rose, Sir Hugh, movements of, in Central India, 251, 259; operations before Jhansi, 289; defeats Tantia Topse, 290; storm and capture of Jhansi by, 291; telegram from, 290; relieves Konch, 297; details of operations, 297, 299; report from Calpee, 300; farewell address to the troops, 346; resumes field operations, 351; defeats Gwalior rebels at the Morar encampment, 351; recovers the capital of Gwalior, 353; restores Scindia to his throne, 354; general order on relinquishing command, 358; notice of services, 359.

Rose, Lieutenant, death of, at Gwalior, 354.

Rowcroft, Colonel, report of operations near Chota Bundah, 228.

Roy Barula, arrival of Lord Clyde at, 539.

Russell, Lord John, speech of, on Indian affairs, 469.

Russell, Mr. (Times' commissioner), extracts from letters of, 251, 254, 266, 323, 356, 375, 380, 540, 566.

S.

Sala Jung, attempt on the life of, at Hyderabad, 585.

Santhak district, disquietude of the, 101.

Sattars, arrest of the rajah of, 139.

Saugor and Nerbudda districts, rebellious state of the, 150.

Scindia, maharajah of Gwalior, difficult position of, 187; defection of his troops, 188; approach of rebel force under Rao Sahib, 349; retires from his capital, 350; restored by Sir Hugh Rose, 354.

Scindias, defeat of Tantia Topse at, 514.

Seaton, Colonel, operations of, 185, 186.

Secunderbath, attack upon the, 86.

Sectapora, fugitives from, at Lucknow, 257, 258, 350, 596.

Selimpore, conflict with rebels at, 512.

Sepoy's, submission of the, 589.

Sepoy press, specimen of, 421.

Shaftesbury, Lord, vote of censure proposed by, 482.

Shahpanpur, rebel attack upon, 331, 334.

Shanaur, condition of females belonging to the, 588.

Shannon (the naval brigade), the services of, 32, 72, 76, 87, 91, 260, 410.

Sherer, Captain, report of occurrences at Jelpigoree, 222.

Shower, Brigadier, operations of, 165.

Shunkorpore, the fort of, 537, 538.

Shanter Shah, rajah of Gond, treason of, 144; matrimonial prayer of, 48; punishment of, 145.

Silica, hostile prophecy of the, 594.

Sirmur, the town of, invested by Bhules, 156.

Sirha, defeat of rebel force at, by Brigadier Walpole, 316.

Smith, Brigadier, affair of, at Kota-ki-Berai, 332; at Tantia, 600.

Sotheby, Captain (Pearl naval brigade), services of, enumerated, 618, 619.

Spencer, Major, murder of, at Meer-Meer, 141.

Stanley, Lord, appointed secretary of state for India, upon the resignation of Lord Ellenborough, 492; address of, to the students at Addiscombe, 537; despatch of 9th
INDEX.

December, 1858, to the governor-general, 644; parliamentary discussion thereon, 646; resigns office, and is succeeded by Sir Charles Wood, 664. State of affairs in India, in June, 1858, 361, 366. Stubbs, Ensign, murder of, at Kolapore, 131, 132. Succession, the claims to, a cause of disquietude, 128. Sudras, peculiarities of the caste of, 587.

T.

Tantia Topur, attempt of, to relieve Jhanisie, 299; defeat of, by Sir Hugh Rose, ib.; intrenched at Kouch, 297; intrigues of, at Gwalior, 349; defeat and rout of, from Gwalior, 353; reappearance of, 513; defeated at Scindwa, 514; at Korrasi, 515; subsequent movements of, 516, 544; pursuit of, by Brigadier Parke, 545; defeated at Chiota Oodeypore, ib.; proclamation of, 546; movements of, 548; interview with a spy, 549; personal appearance of, 550, 601; pursuit of, 557; defeated at Fortahhabur, ib.; at Seekur, 574; at Koosana, 575; movements of, 582, 584; surrounded by British troops, 598; defeated at Tinasia, 600; betrayed by Maun Sing of Powrie, 601; trial and death of, 602; personal notice of, 603, 604. Taylor, Mr., commissioner of Patna, reports of, 102, 107. Taylor, A. L., report of conflict with Bheels, 153. Thanksgiving, national, for successes in India, 650; the prayer adopted, 656. Thanks of parliament to the governor-general and army in India, 454, 650. Thatcher, Lieutenant, report of conflict with Bheels, 151. Thompson, General, extraordinary speech on the war in India, 460. Thorntay, insurrectionary movement at, 548. Timeevelly, caste disturbances at, 586. Tinista, defeat of rebels at, by Brigadier Smith, 600. Toolseyapore, affray with rebels at, 605. Trevelyan, Sir C., reforms introduced by, at Madras, 628. Tucker, Captain, defeats a rebel force at Jeerum, 213; his death, ib. Tulloch, attack of, by rebels, 234. Tytler, Lieutenant-colonel, telegram from, 16.

U.

Umballah, General Windham appointed to the command of, 202.

V.

Victoria Cross, the correspondence of Sir Colin Campbell respecting nominations for, 29; declared attainable by civilians for gallant conduct during the revolt in India, 612; conferred upon Lieutenant-colonel Sir Henry M. Havelock, by the Queen, 645.

W.

Z.

Zenat Mahal, queen of Delhi, visit of English ladies to, 169; alleged intrigues of, 180; accompanies her husband in his exile, 629; embarks at Calcutta for Rangoon, 630.