INDEX.

VOL. I.

Ansort, Colonel, precession of, at Noemuch, 211; gallant conduct of, 212; vindication of, 220.
Abbott, Major, official report of revolt at Delhi, 106.
Abbott, Captain, report of mutiny of the Hyderabad contingent, 426—428.
Absenteism, military system of, 158, 607.
Address by General Hearsay at Barrackpore, 40.
Address to the Queen, on the Indian revolt, 530.
Administration of the government of India provided for, 23.
Agra, the city of, 128; parade of troops at, 129; incendiary fires at, 167; the 44th and 67th regiments disarmed, 168; desertion of the troops, 169; alarm at, 552; advance of mutineers, 553; the town and cantonments plundered, ib.; official report, 554; letters from, 554—560.
Albamari, Earl, on the cause of Indian discontent, 616—620.
Alexander the Great, India invaded by, 12.
Alexander, Lieutenant, murder of, at Allahabad, 252.
Allahabad, the city of, 249; cavern temple of Siva, 249; arrival of 64th regiment, 250; alarm at, 251; outbreak and massacre at, 252; correspondence from, 253—259; sail dispatched from, to Calcutta, 261; Allmure, junction of Barnard and Wilson’s forces at, 195.
Allughi, outbreak at, 131; flight of Europeans to Hattras, 132.
Ancient states of India, 15.
Anglo-Indians army, origin of, 33.
Anson, General, the Hon. George, commander-in-chief in Bengal, proceedings at Nimul, 110, 185; at Umballah, 111; unpopularity of, 186; arrangements for advance upon Delhi, 189; death of, 191; minute of the supreme council, ib.
Aong, battle of, 370.
Appointmen of the first governor-general of India, 23.
Army, growth of the native service, 34; recognition of castes, 35, 159; mischivous effects of, 159; the state of, in India, 607—609, 616; reinforcements for, 631.
Arreh, the station of, 439; alarm at, 440; flight of civil officers, ib.; official correspondence therefrom, 441.
Arrest of the king of Oude at Garden Reach, Calcutta, 585; letter of the governor-general to the king, 586; imprisonment in Fort William, ib.
Arrival of first telegram from the seat of revolt, 614.
Attack upon a picket near Delhi, 478.
Auggur, mutiny at, 546; romantic flight from, 447, 551.
Aurungabad, the city of, 425; revolt of Hyderabad contingent at, 426; official report of, 426—428; arrival of General Woodburn at, 429; mutineers attacked and disarmed, 430; execution of prisoners, 431; correspondence from, ib.; fidelity of a trooper at, 433.
Ayah, narrative of one at Cawnpore, 343, 350.
Ayoda, or Oude, the ancient province of, 19.
Azingur, mutiny at, 171; regiment of, 207; the city pillaged, 208; narrative of Sergeant-major Lewis, 209.

B.

BARDOLLE KE SHERAI, battle of, 198; despatch of General Sir H. Barnard, 197, 198; recollections of, 477.
Banda, insurrection at, 424; fidelity of the nawab, ib.; escape of Europeans from, 425.

B.

Barber, Lieutenant, death of, near Mysore, 169, 170.
Bareilly, disposition of the troops at, 171; arrival of mutineers from Meerut, 172; the outbreak, 174; murder of European officers and civilians, 174, 175; report by Colonel Troup, 175—176; narrative of the outbreak, by a native gossip, 179.
Barnard, Major-general Sir II., appointed commander-in-chief of the Delhi siege force, 191; despatches from, 197, 198.
Barco, the town of, 125; Mussulman outrages near, ib.
Barrackpore, the military station of, 88; proposed mutiny of 34th regiment discovered, 40; removal of 19th regiment to, 44; attack upon Lieutenant Bawn by Mangul Pandy, 45; punishment parade at, 47; the 19th regiment disbanded, 40; address to the troops, by General Hearsay, 49; execution of Mangul Pandy, 50; alarming state of the native troops, ib.; execution of a janialar, 51; reported loyalty of troops at, 181; threatened mutiny at, 582; native regiments disarmed at, ib.; petition to except the 70th regiment rejected, 583, 584.
Barsewa, deputation of mutineers seposy at, 45.
Barrett, Major, misplaced confidence of, at Benares, 224.
Batson, Surgeon, narrative of escape from Delhi, 93.
Batty, Lieutenant Quentin, death of, 460, 461.
Baugh, Lieutenant, attack upon by Mangul Pandy, 45.
Benaree, the city of, 221; incendiary fires at, 223; arrival of Colonel Neill, ib.; revolt of the 37th regiment at, 224; fidelity of the Sikhs, 227; letters from, 226—241.
Bengal, the province of, 23; the seposy of, 34; distribution of the army of, 186.
Bentinck, Lord William, freedom of the Indian press established by, 580.
Beshampore, mutinous disposition of the troops at, 43, 44.
Bharter Isam, humanity of, 67.
Bhopawur, alarm at, 544; flight of the Europeans, ib.
Bithoor, the rajah of, 502, 503; a visit to Nana Sahib at, 504; taken by General Havelock’s troops, 593; destruction of the palace, 388.
Black Hole at Calcutta, account of the, 26, 27.
Blake, Major, murder of, at Gwallor, 419.
Bombay, the city of, 11; disturbed state of, 124; Parsee Towers of Silence at, 123.
Booran Boksh, fidelity of, at Aurungabad, 433.
Brayer, Captain, gallant conduct of, at Allahabad, 261, 264, 270.
Brooke, Captain, report of outrages at Mhow, 536.
Burgess, Corporal (sappers and miners), at the Cashmere gate, Delhi, 500.
Burns, Lieutenant and Adjutant, letter from Sectapores, 203.
Busher, Farrier-sergeant, narrative of escape from Fysabad, 398.
Butler, Dr. J. H., report of outbreak at Soolkote, 566.

C.

CABINET Council on Indian affairs, 617.
Calcutta, the city of, 4; population and extent of, 5, 6; public edifices, 7; domestic life at, 8; established as the seat of government, 23; taken by the Mahhrattas, 26; terror of the inhabitants, 504; General Wilson's despatches of September 16th and 18th, 505, 506; government notification, 507; flight of the king, 508; the palace set on fire, 509; pursuit and capture of the king, 510; capture and death of three princes, 511; despatch of September 22nd. &c.; government notification, 514; correspondence, 513; appearance of the king, 520; the English forces, 523; trial of the Shababzadeh, 524; orders for dismantling the fortifications, 525; retirement of General Wilson from the command at Delhi, 526; General Penny succeeds, &c.; summary of operations before and after the battle, 527. Delhi Gazette, establishment of, destroyed, 100. Dhar, revolt of the rajah of, 543. Dhurrampore, arrival of fugitives at, 248. Diary of occurrences at Cawnpore, 323-325; at Delhi, 483. Dinapore, conduct of native regiment at, 50. Dispositions of the European troops in May, 1857, 186. Dowlai, Mr., on the Indian revolts, 615, 621, 622. Distances, table of, 32. Distribution of caste in 34th N.I., 53. Disturbances, rapid spread of, 57. Douglas, Captain, murdered at Delhi, 74. Dum-dum, artillery station of, 36; discontent at, 37. Dunlop, Colonel, murdered at Jhansi, 272. E.
INDEX.

East India Company, origin of, 20; incorporated by charter, 21; progressive rise of, 23; administration and military power of, 24; Colonel Clive, 28; civilising influences of the Company's government, 31; material of its native army, 33; its policy unaltered, 40; annexation of Oude by the, 146; proceedings at general Court of Proprietors, 119; appeal of royal family of Oude against, 152; allegation of torture sanitised by the Company, 154; increase of European troops asked for, 156; the right of native adoption disallowed by, 362; Bajee Rao Pichhwa and Nana Sahib, &c.; breach of agreement with, 503; distress of the Rao's family, &c.; organisation of the Company's government in Bengal, 452; the Calcutta petition for the direct government of the crown, 507; Indian Reform League organised, 509; debates in parliament on the government of the Company and its officers, 600-631, 634, 637; application by the Court of Directors for military aid, 614; petition of queen of Oude against, 632; English Mutiny Relief Fund instituted, 538. Edwardes, Colonel, on the state of Peninsular war, 413. Erchawus, the fugitives from Auggur at, 550. Ellenborough, Lord, on Indian affairs, 605, 615, 618, 635. Elphinstone, Lord, lieutenant-governor of Bombay; special notification of, 164. England, rise and progress of its power in the East Indies, 20; interference with the Company's government, 23; hostilities with France, 25; impeachment of Warren Hastings, 29; arrival of intelligence of the sepoys revolt, 614; address to the Queen, 631; debate in House of Commons on the state of the Bengal army, 634; Lord Shaftesbury on 'Caste' in the Indian service, 637; parliament prorogued, 639; public feeling on Indian affairs, 616; a retrospect, 641, 649. Escape of Europeans from Alibabad, 452; Allygurh, 132, 201; Arrath, 439; Auggur, 547; Aurungabad, 431; Azimgurh, 207; Banda, 424; Bareilly, 173, 175; Barees, 233, 241; Bhonnagur, 544; Cawnpore, 530, 538, 545, 582; Delhi, 79, 99; Futteghur, 347, 352; Futtahpehore, 423; Fyzabad, 395, 401; Gwalior, 418, 422; Jhansie, 205; Hisar, 206; Indore, 322; Jubbulpore, 464; Jaunpur, 244; Mhow, 537; Morahabad, 188; Neemuch, 213, 220; Nwogom, 276, 282, 293; Nusserahabad, 167; Philliour, 406; Seelkote, 566, 569; Sutlej, 202; Shahjehanpore, 246; Sultanpore, 247; Etawah, disturbances at, 130, 434. European troops, arrival of, at Calcutta from Ceylon, 185; reinforcements sent from England, 614. Evans, Sir De Lacy, on the Bengal army, 634. Ewart, Mrs., letters of, from Cawnpore, 309, 312. Ewart, Lieutenant-colonel, letter of, 312. F.

Fagan, Captain, death of, at Mhow, 535. Falkir, humanity of one, 67. Fayer, assistant-surgeon, murder of, 169. Ferozepore, outbreak at, 119; punishment of rebels at, 410. Fidelity of 48th native infantry, 53; of 1st Bombay lancers, 152. Finnis, Colonel, death of, at Meerut, 57. Finnis, Alderman, initiates the Mutiny Relief Fund, 638. Fisher, Colonel, murder of, at Sultanpore, 247. Flagstaff tower, Delhi, the, 78. Forrest, Lieutenant, report from Delhi, 75. Forster, Colonel, letter of, from Midnapore, 446. Forsyth, Mr., adventure of, 407. Fort St. George, Madras, erected, 22. Fort William, Calcutta, erected, 22; projected surprise of, 585; king of Oude imprisoned in, 586. Fraser, Captain, report from Allahabad, 265. French possessions in India, 25; struggles for conquest in, 25, 26. Farrukhabad, the fort of, 547; murder by the nawab of, 590. Futtakhur, station of, 347; alarm at, 348; flight of Europeans, &c.; treachery of the native troops, 550; the outbreak, 351; list of fugitives from, 532; their fate, 356, 357. Futtakhur, the town of, 362; battle of, &c.; General Havelock's despatches from, 363-365; private details of, 566, 567; outbreak at, 423; murder of Mr. Tucker at, 424. Futtaphore Sikree, battle at, 553. Fyzabad, the town and cantonments of, 392; alarm at, 393; flight of Europeans from, 395; their adventures, 396; Sergeant Bashir's narrative of, 398. G.

Hamilton, Lord Claude, his speech on Indian affairs, 153.
INDEX

Handcombe, Brigadier, death of, 182.
Hansbrow, Dr., murder of, at Bareilly, 175.
Hand, outbreak at, 294.
Hardy, Captain, report of mutiny at Nusserabad, 163.
Harrs, Major, murdered at Mhow, 537, 539.
Hastings, N. Warren, his administration as governor-general, 28, 29.
Hattras, fugitives at, from Aligurh, 132; mutiny at, 201.
Havelock, General, marches to the relief of Cawnpore, 361; joins Major Renaud's advanced column at Synee, 361; battle of Futtehpore, 362; despatches, 363; general order to the troops, 363; correspondence, 356; advance to Kullelapore, 367; Oude irregular cavalry disarmed, 367, 369; battle of Kullelapore, 369; of Aong, 370; of Pandoo Nuddee, ib.; despatches, 371; advance upon Cawnpore, 372; fight on the road, 373; bravery of a wounded soldier, ib.; the magazine blown up, 374; details of the advance, ib.; entry into Cawnpore, 376; horrible fate of the European women and children discovered, 377; relics of the dead, 377, 378; description of the slaughter-house, 378; details of the massacre, 379, 382; recollections of the intrenchment, 384; despatch from, 385; general order to the troops, 387; flight of Nana Sahib, 388; joined by Brigadier Neil, 398; departs for the relief of Lucknow, 398; punishment of the rebels, 389, 390, 391.
Hawthorne, Bugler, 52nd regiment, at the Cashmere gate, Delhi, 500; the Victoria Cross bestowed upon, 500.
Hay, Dr., murdered at Bareilly, 175.
Hayes, Captain, murder of, 169, 170.
Hearsey, Brigadier-general, at Bareckpore, 46; address to the native troops at, 49; report on the 70th regiment, 160.
Hewitt, Major-general, report of the mutiny at Meerut, 118; superseded in command by Major general Penny, 589.
Hilander, humanity of one at Benares, 242, 243.
Hills, Lieutenant, heroism of, before Delhi, 478; letter of, 479.
Hindoo Rao's house, an advance post before Delhi, 196.
Hindostan, derivation of the name, 1; geographical features and climate, 2; native populations and languages of, 2, natural productions, 4; principal vitiates of, ib.; castes, 13; religious and historical traditions of, 14, 15; invasion of, by the Greeks, 17; by the Mohammedans, 18; by the Persians, 29; British settlement in, ib.
Hissar, outbreak at, 206.
Holkar, fidelity of, 531; beneficial effects of his example, 543, 544.
Holmes, Major, introduces martial law in Sarun, &c., 451; repudiated by the government, ib.; murdered at Segwoltee, 452.
Horne, Lientenant, gallant conduct of, at the Cashmere gate, Delhi, 500; the Victoria Cross conferred upon him, ib.
Horrible scene at an execution, 411, 413.
Humanity of a fairk at Meerut, 67.
Hyderabad contingent, revolt of, 426.

Incendiary address at Madras, 39.
India, general notice of, 1—20.
Indore, defection of Holkar's contingent at, 530; flight of, from Fathpur, 532; fidelity of the maharajah, 533; list of victims at, 534.
Infanticide prohibited by the East India Company, 51.
Innes, Lieutenant, murder of, at Allahabad, 294.
Invasion of Cashmere at Cawnpore, the, 315; siege of, commenced, 319; incidents connected with, 320—331; deaths within the, 329; a sortie, 332; perilous effort to escape from, by a commissariat officer, 333; dreadful condition of the besieged, 334; evacuated by General Wheeler, 335; recollections of, 381.

J.
Jawwa, loyalty of the rajah of, 545.
Jack, Brigadier, death of, at Cawnpore, 528; valuable services of, 224.
James, Brigadier, report of mutiny at Ferozepore, 120.
Jaunpore, outbreak at, 244; escape of Europeans from, 244.
Jenudar of 34th regiment, execution of, at Barrackpore, 51.
Jennings, Rev. Mr., and daughter, murdered at Delhi, 74.
Jennings, Miss, recollections of, 100.
Jhanji, mutiny of the 12th native infantry at, 271; Captain Dunlop and Ensign Taylor murdered on parade, 272; Europeans take refuge in the fort, ib.; offers for surrender accepted, ib.; the fort evacuated, 273; the garrison slaughtered, ib.; details of the massacre, 273, 274, 284, 295.
Jhelum, the town of, 550; mutiny at, and defeat of the rebels, 551.
Jhind, loyal conduct of the rajah of, 128.
Jones, Mr., speech at Court of Proprietors on the annexation of Oude, 150.
Jones, Mr. C. S., narrative of escape from Futtoghar, 353.
Jubulpore, the station of, 435; insubordination of the 52nd native infantry; temporising conduct of the officer in command, 436; correspondence, 437.
Jullundur, an alarm at, 465; mutiny and desertion of the troops, 464; attack upon the officers, 405.

K.
Kampter, station of, 435.
Kendrew, Rev. James, narrative of outbreak at Benares, 230, 233, 240.
Khan Bahadur Khan declared king of Rohilcund at Bareilly, 175; murder of Europeans by order of, ib.
Kinnaird, Mr., on the administration of Indian affairs, 609.
Kirchoff, Sergeant, narrative of escape from Nowgong, 281.
Kirke, Major, perils of, at Nowgong, 275; his death, 279.
Koonam Sing, equivelar servent of, at Larkoo, 551.
Kota, mutiny of the contingent of, at Agra, 552.
Kullelapore, Nana Sahib holds council of war at, 319; battle of, 369.
Kurnool, the town of, 44.

L.
Lahore, the city of, 122; tomb of Jehangeer at, 123; body-guard of Ranjest Sing at, ib.
Larkoo, peril of fugitives from Auggur at, 551.
Lawrence, Sir Henry, chief commissioner in Oude; application for enlarged authority, 52; vigorous application of it, 52, 53; defeats mutineers at Moodkee, 132; restores order at Lucknow, 183; his rewards and punishments, 183, 185; reported ill, 434.
Lawrence, Sir John, chief commissioner of the Punjab; address to the sepoyos of the Bengal army, 210; advice to government, 211; remarks on the fortifications of Delhi, 256.
Legislative council of India; act of, for punishing offences against the state, 101; law for restricting the press adopted by, 576; petition of inhabitants of Calcutta for new, 589.
Lennox, Colonel, narrative of mutiny at Fyzabad, 393—395.
Leslie, Sir Norman, murder of, at Rhonee, 414.
Letters referring to occurrences at Agra, 116, 137, 167, 554—560; Allahabad, 233—239; Arrah, 440, 442; Auggur, 547—551; Aurungabed, 426, 428, 433; Asinigurh, 208; Bareilly, 173—180; Cawnpore, 500; Benares, 225—243; Calcutta, 586, 588, 516; Cawnpore, 304, 306, 313, 320, 329, 351, 334.
INDEX.

336—344, 358, 360, 372—376, 378, 380—385, 389; Delhi, 79, 81, 86—107, 189, 195, 199, 200, 460—469, 471—479, 481—493, 504, 509, 515—523, 525—527; Jangal, 130; Fyzabad, 170; Patteghur, 353—357; Putteghur, 366; Fyzabad, 393—402; Gwallor, 419—422; Gya, 443; Hissar, 204, 206; Indore, 532—534; Jhansi, 273, 279; Jhelum, 56; Jaunpur, 292, 313; Allahabad, 39, 433, 437, 439; Allahabad, 404, 407; Kullempore, 357; Lucknow, 55; Meerut, 56, 58, 59—67, 493; Mhow, 535—545; Midnapore, 434, 444, 448; Mymapore, 132, 136, 169; Nagpore, 438; Nerbudda, 214, 220; Nowgong, 276—283; 296, 298; Nussaverabad, 164, 167; Poonoo Nudde, 371; Feslahwar, 413; Phullor, 406; Rhoonee, 415; Saran, 450, 452; Saugor, 562; Scalsko, 563—573; Scetapore, 202, 203; Saltanapore, 247; Surat, 125; Tirhoot, 449, 450; Umballah, 112, 115, 127.

Lewin, Mr., on the affairs of Oude, 152.

Lewis, Quartermaster-sergeant, peril of, at Azimgurh, 209.

Loudhur, outrage at, 404.

Loyalty of three sepoys at Boolundshahur, 131.

Locke, notorious addresses at, 40; symptoms of disaffection at, 51; suspicions expressed, 52; fidelity retracted, 53; a conspiracy discovered, ib.; outbreak at, 181; death of Brigadier Handscombe and Lieutenaut Grant, 182; defeat of the mutineers, ib.; excitement in Lucknow quieted, 183; rewards and promotions, ib.; execution of murderers, 184; reinforcement sent from, to Cawnpore, 300; Sir Henry Lawrence ill at, 434; his council appointed, ib.

Lushington, Sir, civil magistrate at Midnapore, alleged irregular treatment of persons by, 444; his explanation, 445; letter from Colonel Forster to, 446; government reply to explanation, 446.

M.

MacDonald, Major, attempted murder of, 414; letter from, 415.

Madras, the city of, 8; irresponsible addresses at, 39; mutiny of 1st native regiment of, 144; mutiny of 6th light cavalry at, 603; panic at, ib.

Mahabaleshwar, convalescent station of, 127.

Mahadeva (Siva), the worship of, 249.

Mishmoon, invasion of India by, 185.

Mahrattas, hostility of, the, 31.

Malwa, excited state of, 545.

Mangal, Mr., on Indian government, 612; reply to Mr. Dirlie, ib.

Mard. Lieutenant, murder of, at Jaunpur, 244; death of his wife, ib.

Marsden, assassinated in the North-West Provinces, 129.

Maun Sing, of Shaghung, friendly disposition of, 393; arrested, ib.; protects fugitives from Fyzabad, ib.

Mawe, Dr., escape of, from Nowgong, 276.

Meerut, the town and cantonment of, 55; discontent of the troops at, ib.; punishment parade at, ib.; outbreak of the mutiny, 56; Colonel Punnis shot, 57; the massacre commenced, ib.; General Hewitt's report, 58; flight of the mutineers to Delhi, 59; details of the outrage, 60—66, 81—108; admirable conduct of the women at, 493.

Melville, Lord, on the state of the Bengal army, 619.

Mhow, outrage at, 534; letters from, 537—543.

Midnapore, mismanagement at, 444.

Military absenteism, ill effect of, 158.

Mill, Mrs. Major, peril of, 402.

Mitchell, Colonel, lax discipline of, at Berhampore, 44.

Mogul empire, dismemberment of, 23.

Mobundee, outbreak at, 247.

Moodkee, defeat of mutinous troops at, 182.

Morley, Mr., neutral and safe, 492; mutiny of troops at, ib.; fidelity of 1st Bombay light cavalry, 163; report of, by Captain Hardy, ib.; details of the occurrence, 164, 166.

Morley, Mr., master of atrocities, and escape from, Delhi, 81.

Mornington, Earl, administration of, 30.

Moulvi, the, of Lucknow, departure of, from Allahabad, 265.

Mountstuart, Ensign, death of, 479.

Mungal Pandy, mutiny of, 45; execution of, 50.

Murad, outbreak at, 412.

Murray, Dr., narrative of occurrences at Neemuch, 216.

Mynopoone, mutiny at, 132; report of civil magistrate, ib.; heroic defence of the forts at De Kantzow, 134; murder of Captain Hayes near, 169.

Mysteries of the chupatties, 39.

N.

Nagpore, the town of, 437; outbreak at, 438; execution at, ib.

Nana Sahib, family of, 301; alleged cause of discontent, 302, 324; ostensibly character of, 304; visit to Bithoor, 304, 306; messengers to, from the troops at Cawnpore, 317; joins the mutineers at Nubakhonde, ib.; proclamation to the rebel army, 318; council held at Kullempore, 319; General Wheeler summoned to surrender, ib.; Cawnpore taken, 320; besieges the intrenched position, ib.; diary of his proceedings, 324, 326; address of, to the inhabitants of Cawnpore, 325; offers terms of surrender to General Wheeler, 335; the intrenched post vacated, ib.; treachery of, 335, 336, 343; his first massacre at (June 27th), 335, 337; proclamation of, 341; murder of fugitives from Putteghur (12th June), 349; defeated near Cawnpore by General Havelock, 376; massacre of women and children (16th July), 376; list of the victims, 378; flight from Cawnpore, 381; driven from Bithoor, 385; correspondence of, found, 389.

Napier, General Sir Charles, on caste in the Bengal army, 36.

Native army of Bengal, the, 33.

Neemuch, panic at, 211; the outbreak, 212; details of, 213; Easington Davenport’s narrative, 215.

Neill, Colonel, arrival at Benares, 223; decisive conduct of, 224; report from, 225; arrival at Allahabad, 241; attacks the mutineers there, 256; despatches from, 239, 261, 262, 264; prepares to relieve Cawnpore, 268; appointed brigadier-general, 361; arrives at Cawnpore, 388; relieves General Havelock, and assumes command, 389; letter from, ib.; his mode of punishment, 398; notification to claimants of property recovered, 391.

Nerput, diary of occurrences at Cawnpore, by, 323.

Nicholson, Brigadier-general; battle of Nujufghur, 493; despatch from, ib.; details of, 493; appointed to lead the assault on Delhi, 499; death of, 501; memoir of, ib.; honourable mention of, 505, 512.

North-West Provinces, report on the state of the, 136.

Notification of the capture of Delhi, 507, 514.

Nowgong, alarm at, 275; details of outbreak, 276; Kirchoff’s narrative of escape from, 281; Captain Scott’s official reports, 284, 295.

Nujooor Jewaree’s narrative of massacre at Cawnpore, 342.

Nujufghur, battle of, 494.

Nuszabahad, the city of, 162; mutiny of troops at, ib.; fidelity of 1st Bombay light cavalry, 163; report of, by Captain Hardy, ib.; details of the occurrence, 164, 166.

O.

Observations on the prevalence of caste in the Bengal army, 35; on the mutiny at Barrackpore, 46; on the outbreak at Meerut, 67; at Delhi, 109; on the progress of the revolt, 118, 210, 434, 438, 527; on the affairs of India, 643; on the rejection of the queen of Oude’s petition, 601, 633.

O’Donovan, Lieutenant, murder of, at Augurg, 546.

Officers, Europeans, regimental inefficiency of, 158, 607, 608.
Official details of proceedings at Delhi, 76; instructions for treatment of mutineers, 589.

Punjab, repressive measures in the, 123. Pitt recreats the rajah of, his loyalty, 127.

R.

Racks, the various, of India, 3; their divisions, 13.

Rakes, Mr. C. S., murdered at Bareilly, 175.

Rajahs, fidelity of several noticed, 127.

Raleigh, Cornwallis murdered at Moodkee, 182.

Rao Bhownaree Sing, fidelity of, 134.

Rawul Pindee, town of, 561; troops disarmed at.

Rede, Major-general T., appointed provincial commander-in-chief, 122; succeeds Major-general Barnard in command before Delhi, 476; despatch from, 482; general order of, 486; retires on sick certificate, 16; succeeded by Brigadier A. Wilson, 16.

Relief fund instituted, 638.

Religious sects of India, 14, 15.

Renaud, Major, advance of, to relieve Cawnporo, 357; junction with General Havelock, 361; encounter with the rebels, 361, 372; wounded at Pando Nuddes, 372; his death recorded, 389.

Revolt, first outbreak of, the, 56.

Rhoner, murderous outrage at, 414; execution at, 416.

Rich, Mr., M.P., on the state of the British army in India, 607.

Ricketts, Mr., murder of, at Shahjehanpoor, 246.

Ripley, Colonel, murder of, at Delhi, 87.

Robertson, Mr. C. S., murdered at Bareilly, 175.

Roorkee, mutiny at, 64.

Runjent Sing, palace of, at Lahore, 122; female guards of, 125.

Rust, successful one at Hattras, 201.

Russell, Lord John, motion of, for address to the Queen, on the state of India, 627.

S.

Sage, Brigadier, operations at Saugor, 562; explanation of conduct, 563.

Salkeld, Lieutenant Philip, heroism of, at the Cashmere gate, Delhi, 509, 505; the Victoria Cross awarded him, 509; notice of death, 16.

Sarun, district of, 451; military law declared in, by Major Holmes, 16; repudiated by government, 16.

Saugor, station of, 562; alarm at, 16; conduct of the troops at, 563.

Saunders, Lieutenant, cruel murder of, at Cawnporo, 384.

Sciindia, the maharajah, fidelity of, 127; protects the Europeans at Gwalior, 184; thanked by the governor-general, 16; revolt of his troops, 418; his dangerous position, 422; influence of his example, 424.

Scott, Captain, report of mutiny at Nowgor, 294, 295; at Jhansi, 294.

Sealkote, outbreak at, 564; the massacre, 16; retreat of mutineers from, 565; letters from, 566–572; punishment at, 573.

Secunderabad, the town of, 44.

Sheetapoor, revolt and massacre at, 202.

Segowice, martial law declared at, 450.

Seonee, the civil station of, 435; alarm at, 436.

Sepoy, religion and habits of, the, 34; influence of caste over, 35, 36.

Shahjung, battle of, 554.

Shahjehanpoor, revolt at, 180; atrocities at, 246.

Shalma, the garden of, at Lahore, 123.

Sheik Ameen oo deen, fidelity of, 132.

Shekawattere battalion, concession to the, 434.

Shepherd, Mr., narrative of occurrences at Cawnporo, 330, 333, 337, 1; murder of, 302.

Short, Captain, letter of, 434.

Sibbald, Brigadier, report from Bareilly, 171; murder of, 172.

Silence, the towers of, 125.
INDEX.

Sleeman, Colonel, report of, in Oude, 133.
Simla, convalescent station of, 119; the commander-in-chief at, 185; panic at, 187.
Sirhind, the town of, 56; escape of women and children from, 19.
Siva, the temple of, at Sowmauth, 19; a cavern temple of, at Allahabad, 249.
Skene, Captain, murder of, at Jhansi, 274.
Smith, Vernon (president of Board of Control), his erroneous statements in the House of Commons, 155, 608; reply to Mr. Kinnaird, 611; to Lord Ellenborough, 626; to Mr. Whiteside, 634; statement in reference to the queen and princes of Oude, 636.
Smith, Colonel Baird, report on the storming of Delhi, 500.
Smith, Sergeant John, at the Cashmere gate, 500.
Smith, the Rev. T. C., details of outrages at Meerut, 64, 65, 100.
Somerset, General Sir Henry, provisional Commander of the forces in India, 192.
Somnauth, temple of Siva at, 19.
Spirit of the army before Delhi, 195, 200.
Spottiswoode, Captain, death of, at Nussereabad, 162, 165.
Spurgin, Captain, report of passage on the Ganges to Cawnpore, 358.
St. George, the fort of, Madras, 10.
Staff appointments, the abuse of, 157.
State of India on the arrival of Sir Colin Campbell, 607.
Sultanpur, mutiny at, 247.
Suurah Dowlah, barbary of, at Calcutta, 26; expelled by Clive, 27.
Suit, the factory at, 21; city of, 126; alarm at, 127.
Suspension-bridge, the, at Giazeo oon deen Nuggur, 192.
Suttee, the rite of, prohibited in the Anglo-Indian territories, 31.

T.
Tawarcl Scale of distances, 32.
Tollockdar, the system of, in Oude, 148.
Taylor, Mr. W., commissioner of Patna, reprieves fugitive officials from Arrah, 440; correspondence with lieutenant-governor of Bengal, 441.
Tavernmouth, Lord, his administration, 30.
Temper of the force before Delhi, 476, 477.
Teritory of the East India Company, 2; first acquisition by, 21.
Thompson, Captain R. L., report of mutiny at Peronaher, 268.
Thomson, Lieutenant Mowbray, narrative of occurrences at Cawnpore, 384.
Thomson, Mr., narrative of massacre at Jhansi, 274.
Thuggee, the practice of, restrained, 31; its prevalence in Oude, 145.
Tippoo Saib, intrigues and death of, 30.
Turbot, alarm at, 449; outbreak prevented, 450.
Tomb, Major, gallant conduct of, before Delhi, 478.
Torture, alleged practice of, by collectors of revenue, 153.
Towers of Silence, the Parsee, 125.
Townsend, Lieutenant, murder of, in flight from Now-goong, 279.
Travers, Major, report of outbreak at Indore, 531.
Treaties with Oude recapitulated, 150.
Treaty of commerce with Jehangeer, 21.

Trial of Mungul Pandy, the first rebel, 50; of the princes of Delhi, 524.
Trimmoo, defeat of mutineers at, 565.
Troupe, Colonel, energetic conduct of, at Bareilly, 172; report of occurrences by, 175, 176.
Tucker, Mr. R. T., murder of, at Futtehpore, 429.

U.
Ullahpore, letter from, on occurrences at Delhi, 105.
Umballah, station of, 110; incendiaric fires at, 112; mutinous behaviour of the troops at, 113; head-quarters established at, 186; pursuit of Jullundur rebels from, 407; cholera at, 405.
Unghere, revolt of the rajah of, 544.
Unpopularity of Mr. Colvin, 411; of General Anson, 186; of Lord Canning, 574, 580, 592.

V.
Vaneables, Mr., resolute conduct of, at Arimgurh, 208.
Victims of the revolt, lists of, at Meerut, 58, 59; Delhi, 108; Bareilly, 178; Hansi, 206; Hisar, 16; Benares, 226; Jhansi, 275; Cawnpore, 329, 337, 338, 337, 378; Futtoghur, 352; Fyzabad, 401; Gwalior, 419; Indore, 534; Seelkote, 570.
Victoria Cross for the Cashmere gate assault, 500.
Vishnu, the creature of, 129.
Vishnagram, station of, 44; mutiny at, suppressed, 48.

W.
Wagtenhille, Mr., and family, perilous escape of, from Delhi, 81.
Wajid Ali Shah, accession of, to the throne of Oude, 145.
Wake, H. C., defence of Arrah by, 439, 440.
Wedderburn, General, death of, 125.
Wedderburn, Mr., murdered at Hansi, 206.
Wellesley, General (Wellington), his career in India, 31.
Wheeler, General Sir Hugh, telegrams of, from Cawnpore, 309—314; fortifies the intrenchment, 315; summoned to surrender, 319; wounded in a sortie, 332; capitulates, 335; treacherously murdered, 344.
Wheeler, Miss, heroic self-defence of, 340, 344.
Wheeler, Colonel, conduct of, at Barrackpore, 46; retires from duty, 47.
Williams, Colonel S., death of, at Cawnpore, 529.
Willoughby, Lieutenant, heroism of, at Delhi, 76, 77.
Winton, Brigadier-general, despatches of, 193; assumes command of Delhi field force, 486; general order preparatory to the assault, 498; capture of Delhi by, 509; despatches, 503, 306; relinquishes the command, 526.
Wood, Dr., perilous escape from Delhi, 88.
Woodburn, General, disarms mutinous troops at Aurungabad, 430; jentry of, 432.
Woodington, capture of Barosha by, 125.

Y.
Young, A. R., secretary to government of Bengal; correspondence of, with the commissioner of Patna, 441.
Young, Colonel Keith, letter of, from Delhi, 473.
Yule, Colonel, death of, before Delhi, 468.