May it please your Highness—

I have the honor to dedicate this book to your Highness as the humble token of my deep gratitude to you for your princely donation of Rs. 500, in aid of my undertaking. Were it not for this pecuniary help, it would have been extremely difficult for me to have brought out the book so speedily, as I have been able to do. The Honorable Rai Kristo Das Pal Bahadur, C. I. E., spent his whole life in advocating the cause of the Princes and the People of India, and as your Highness is one of the foremost of Princes with a culture rare among them, I feel that by uniting the honoured name of your Highness with that of the great “Tribune of the people” I shall have marked the indissoluble union that subsists between the People and the Princes of this vast Empire, and the kindred sentiments by which they are animated in all their efforts to advance their country’s good.

I have the honour to be,
Your Highness’s,
Most obedient Servant,
RAMGOPAL SANYAL.
