sceer and Middiman. Price 1l. 18s. in Boards.

"Mr. Malkin displays a mastery of Style, and is an instructive Companion; we have no hesitation in assigning him a Place in the first Clafs of Tourists," M Rev. "This is one of the most elaborate, and indeed, satisfactory Accounts of a Tour through South Wales, that has yet

II. THE TOPOGRAPHY of TROY, and ITS VICINITY, illustrated and explained by Drawings and Descriptions. Dedicated, by Permission, to her Grace the Duchess of Devonshire.

By WILLIAM GELL, Esq. of Jesus College, M. A. F. R. S. F. A. S. and late Fellow of Emmanuel College, Cambridge. In Folio, Price 1ol. 10s. in Boards.

In the Work are given forty-three coloured Plates taken from accurate Drawings, made on the Spot, by the Author, and chiefly engraved by Mr. Medland. The Work is designed to afford an Opportunity to such as have not visited the Country of forming their own Opinions of the Topography of Homer.

III. THE GEOGRAPHY and ANTIQUITIES of ITHACA. dedicated by Permission to the King.

By WILLIAM GELL, Esq. M. A. F. R. S. F. S. A.
And Member of the Society of Dilettanti. In one Vol. 4to. illustrated by Engravings. Price
21. 12s. 6d. in Boards.

IV. ILLUSTRATIONS of the SCENERY of KILLARNEY, the surrounding Country, and a considerable Part of the Southern Coast of Ireland.

By ISAAC WELD, Esq. M. R. I. A.

In 1 Vol. 4to. with numerous Plates elegantly engraved. Price 2l. 2s., and on royal Paper, with first Impressions of the Plates, Price 3l. 3s. in extra Boards.

"In Mr. Weld this illustrious and beautiful Scenery has found an accurate and able Delineator.
His Pen and his Pencil have both been employed with Success, and we have seldom seen a Work that combines more classical Illustration with a high Degree of graphic Excellence."

V. NORTH WALES; including its Scenery, Antiquities, Customs, and some Sketches of its Natural History; delineated from Two Excursions through all the interesting Parts of that Country, during the Summer of 1798 and 1801.

By the Rev. W. BINGLEY, A. M. Fellow of the Linnean Society, and late of Peterhouse, Cambridge.

In 2 Vols. 8vo. illustrated with a new and accurate Map, Frontispieces, and several favourite Welsh Airs, 1l. 15s. Boards.

"We have no Hesitation in declaring that these Volumes deserve to be ranked among the best Performances of the Kind; nor will any one hereafter act wilfully, who should visit North Wales, without making them his Companion." Brit. Crit.

VI. GLEANINGS through WALES, HOLLAND, and WESTPHALIA. By Mr. PRATT.
The Sixth Edition. In 3 Vols, Price 1l. 4s. in Boards.

"We have found so many lively and pungent Exhibitions of Manners, so many amusing and interesting Anecdotes, and so many Observations and Reflections, gay and grave, sportive and fentimental,
VII. GLEANINGS in ENGLAND; descriptive of the Countenance, Mind, and Character of the Country.
Vols. I. II. Price 10s. 6d. each, in Boards; and Vol. III. containing a Variety of interesting and important Topics; including a Sketch of London, and new Views of Peace and War. Price 12s. in Boards. The Second and Third Volumes may be had separately.

"The Author continues to merit the Character he has long and deservedly maintained, of a sprightly and agreeable Writer; of an intelligent, and often a legacious Observer of human Life and Manners." Brit. Crit.

VIII. NOTES on the WEST INDIES, written during the Expedition under the Command of the late General Sir Ralph Abercromby.
By GEORGIUS PINCKARD, M. D.
In 3 Vols. 8vo. Price 11. 10s. in Boards.

"Though the Author has given to his Observations the modest Title of "Notes," they are certainly deserving of a higher Character. The Style is easy and simple, and the Letters are highly deserving of Perusal. This Work will be found generally interesting, as it gives a good View of the State of the West India Settlements; but it will be found more particularly worthy of the Attention of those who wish to add to their Information with respect to Slavery, and West India Diseases." Lit. Journ. "This Work is an extremely valuable Addition to our Information upon Colonial Affairs. It abounds in Facts the Result of actual Observation." Edinb. Rev.

IX. TRAVELS in SOUTH AMERICA during the Years 1801, 1802, 1803, and 1804, containing a Description of the Captains-Generalship of Caraccas, and an Account of the Discovery, Conquest, Topography, Legislature, Commerce, Finance, and Natural Productions of the Country; with a View of the Manners and Customs of the Spaniards and the Native Indians.
By F. DEPONS, late Agent to the French Government at Caraccas.

* * Translated from the French. In 2 Vols. 8vo. with a Map of the Country. Price 11. 18.

"It is with the greatest Satisfaction that we congratulate our Readers on the Appearance of the Volumes before us, in which they will find very ample Details on the natural Resources and Productions, accompanied by much curious Information on the internal State and Government, of the Spanish Colonies in America. Such a Work has an additional Value to an Englishman, since the Acquisition of Trinidad has opened to us a Communication with this fertile and delightful Country." Ed. Rev.

X. TRAVELS in ASIA and AFRICA, including a Journey from Scanderoon to Aleppo, and over the Desert to Bagdad and Baffora; a Voyage from Baffora to Bombay, and along the Western Coast of India: a Voyage from Bombay to Mocha and Suez in the Red Sea, and a Journey from Suez to Cairo and Rosetta in Egypt.
By the late ABRAHAM PARSONS, Esq. Consul and Factor marine at Scanderoon.

In 1 Volume 4to. embellished with Two Engravings, Price 11. 15. in Boards.

"We have throughout found Mr. P. an instructive and agreeable Companion. His Travels are not, as usually happens, made up out of Books, but appear to be a faithful Delineation of what he himself saw and heard. His Descriptions are always perspicuous, and sometimes exhibit Specimens of Elegance and Taste. His Remarks are sensible and never trifling; he exhibits the present State of the Countries through which he travelled without encumbering his Narrative with a Representation of the past; and his Work exhibits the Mark of a Mind which sought after Knowledge, without being impelled by Vanity, which was communicative but not ostentatious, which was studious of Novelty but never negligent of Truth.
